

---

Legerity Industries Bio

Legerity Industries, meaning quickness of mind and body is an action sports clothing company specializing in unique graphic designs. We create innovative designs for athletes involved in extreme sports, giving them legerity during each and every performance. We also aim to give every customer confidence that they look good every time they wear one of our products. Currently, Legerity has a line of tee's and hats and will continue to add new products and additional lines of clothing as we continue to grow.

www.legerityind.com

Kyle Tucker

Kyle Tucker is from Swisher, IA and graduated from Cedar Rapids Prairie High School in the spring of 2009 where he was a member of Business Professionals of America and the tennis team. Kyle transferred to the University of Northern Iowa after being accepted into the student business incubator and the offer of a more concentrated major within business, he is currently a junior marketing major. Kyle transferred from Coe College where he was on the tennis team and majored in business administration for two years.