

Drew T. Kahler

Drew T. Kahler is a Junior Marketing and Public Relations double major pursuing his certificate in Entrepreneurship at the University of Northern Iowa. Drew is actively involved in numerous areas throughout the UNI campus. He currently serves as President of the Maucker Union Policy Board, Vice President of the College Republicans, On-Campus At-Large Senator of the Northern Iowa Student Government, Programming Communications Coordinator, and more. Drew has very ambitious goals for the next two years. These include a run for President of the student body for the 2009-2010 school year, growing MM&M to become a thriving and successful business, and to graduate with honors.

Millennial Marketing and Management

Millennial Marketing and Management (MM&M) offers a variety of Marketing and Management consulting services. The core product of the company is marketing research. MM&M will be offering a full spectrum of marketing research services ranging from simple surveying and data collection to in-depth interviews and focus groups. MM&M plans to eventually expand its services to include marketing plan development and management consulting on various subjects ranging from communication to team building. Part of MM&M's business strategy is to employ UNI students to give back to the university and the student community as MM&M acknowledges the importance of students in the business world - past, present, and future.
