

Where Are They Now?

Catching Up with A Student Business Incubator Graduate

Beth Nybeck

Beth Nybeck graduated in May 2010 with a Bachelors of Fine Arts. She was an affiliate tenant in the Student Business Incubator and took some entrepreneurship courses. Beth's sculptures can be seen all over the UNI campus and in the Business and Community Services building, where she won one of the student art bids. While at UNI, Beth exhibited work in Florida, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, and Missouri. She also had commissioned works for private individuals and the First

"It is my belief that artwork has the ability to influence people, communities, and the world at large."

Unitarian Church of Des Moines. She was selected to design and install the 2010 National Special Olympic Torch in Lincoln, Nebraska, in July 2010. After graduation, Beth located to the Arts Incubator of Kansas City. After locating in the Arts Incubator, she received a commission for the public art in the Montgomery Heights redevelopment for Newark, New Jersey.