

Joseph A. Eibes

Born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska, Joe is currently a senior at UNI expected to graduate in December, 2008. With a Management Information System (MIS) and Marketing double major and a Certificate in Entrepreneurship, Joe feels confident about the future. In April of 2008, he was awarded the JPEC College of Business Administration Student Entrepreneur of the Year.

The diverse double major has given Joe the skills necessary for web development and the marketing ability to seek out new and creative ways to apply these skills. He has a particular interest in green and renewable energies like solar and wind.

Razor-Sharp Window Cleaning

Razor-Sharp Window Cleaning began in Carter Lake, Iowa, in 2006 as J & J Services, a summer window cleaning business owned and operated by Joe. The business has grown and has expanded to the Waterloo/Cedar Falls area and has changed name to Razor-Sharp. Currently, Joe's father handles the operations in Carter Lake and Joe takes care of the Waterloo/Cedar Falls clients.
